The USF Unites Over BioZone Controversy

A Satire News Story By Noah

As all of Elion 2 should know, there has been a civilization of paper frogs living in their dorm, The United States of Frogs (USF). The USF is a society that stands for the unity of all humans, paper frogs, paper swans, rubber ducks, and venus flies traps. For days the USF has lived in peace with Sci-Tech, but thanks to Noah, a USF human citizen, they have been informed of the horrors of the BioZone dissections. They have now declared war on the Biozone workshop. As you read this article, paper frogs are tapping pencils to themselves, “we may have dissected a frog or two but never a paper one,” says Jenn: the BioZone instructor. She should not have said that for real frogs are the friends of the paper frogs. “Ribbit. Croak. Ribbit!” (“war, war, war”), claims Frogimo the USF Prime Minister. Human representative, Noah, is trying his best to diffuse the situation. Even though we, The Sci-Tech Times, believe entirely in Noah’s persuasion skills, though we advise all BioZone campers to immediately tell their counselors if they begin to see paper frogs. Stay alert BioZone; you never know who is secretly fighting for the USF!
