Update on Devon-X

A Satire News Story By Molly

Devon-X has been hijacked by an unknown hacker, mainly suspected to be known vampire and former congressional candidate, Josh Cowan. To seek revenge on the congressional district that did not elect him to the House of Representatives, Cowan has programmed Devon-X to leave Byfield; without his protection, Byfield has no way of defending itself from fires. Marshmallows cannot become golden perfection. Campers are devastated because now all marshmallows will be immediately burnt to a crisp. A search party is being put together to try and find the cyborg hero but has been little success. Rumors have been spreading that there have been sightings of a cyborg animal, but not many believe them. We here at the Sci-Tech Times are looking into the facts.

Bonus Satire Story By Harry

Disaster has struck. Sir Samwell Cohen has fallen into a trap by the giant sea witch; who has forced him into a symptomless coma. Even though Sir Samwell betrayed Jay-nor the Conqueror, rumors have risen about her leading a quest for revenge against the giant sea witch due to her fondness for the brave soul. Despite the symptomless coma, it is believed Sir Samwell was successful in his quest to change the word "soccer" to "football" and so when discussing the former; the Sci-Tech Times will use the word "football" from here on. Rest in Peace, Legends Never Die. Sir Samwell was a brave hero. Not the hero we deserved but the hero we needed. Nothing less than a knight shining. He's our silent guardian, a watchful protector — our Kinesthetic Scientist.
